

AMPLE LEISURE.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—The workmen who have been thrown out of employment in New York and other States where elections were held this year had plenty of time to go to the polls and vote the Republican ticket.

MISS DAISY'S LATEST APPEARANCE.

Chicago Tribune.—Miss Nannette Daisy of Kentucky and thirty other old maids have secured three adjoining quarter sections in the Cherokee Strip and swear that no man shall set foot thereon for any purpose. The gallant thirty-one will plow and sow, and sew, too.

DISTORTING THE PROCLAMATION.

Washington Star.—Gov. Penney, in his Thanksgiving proclamation, takes occasion to deplore the action of Congress concerning silver. It is to be hoped that his novel idea of converting the Thanksgiving proclamation into a treatise on current events will not be generally followed.

LOUISVILLE VS. CHICAGO.

Baltimore Sun.—The Judges of the courts of Louisville, Ky., sitting in joint session Monday last, relieved ten unhappy couples of the galling matrimonial yoke, and as many "grasswidows" and widowers were let loose upon the world. Of the ten couples who were divorced, nine of them were dissatisfied wives, and various were the atrocities complained of. Louisville is certainly pushing Chicago in the divorce line.

A GRAND PROTECTION VICTORY.

New York Press.—The election of William McKinley Governor of Ohio and of Frederic T. Greenhalge of Massachusetts represents the Republican victory on National issues, as the defeat of Maynard and the Brooklyn Ring represents the victory for good municipal government and a spotless judiciary. In Ohio the campaign was fought almost entirely on National questions, the Tariff taking precedence of all other issues. The magnificent canvass made by Governor McKinley, with the grand results of thirty-two years of protection on the one side and the gloomy effects of eight months of threatened free trade on the other, has ended in a victory for American industry, American labor and the American home. How could it be otherwise? Never in the economical history of our Nation have the wisdom of protection and the folly of free trade been so clearly brought before the people. Never has the change from industrial prosperity and contentment to industrial ruin and discontent followed so immediately upon a change of government and presumption change in the fiscal policy of the Nation. With such a tremendous object lesson in favor of protection to home industries, it is hardly a matter of surprise that the popular pendulum has swung and the author of the greatest and wisest protective measure of the century should be returned by the largest plurality ever given a Governor in Ohio since the day's of the war.

The Republican victory in Ohio will be heralded with joy in every industrial center throughout this broad land. It will thrill the hearts of those who 365 days ago witnessed with sorrow the flag go down, but who nailed it to the masthead the day after election and began anew the battle. It will give confidence to our manufacturers and inspire the wage earner out of employment, on half time or working for reduced wages, with a hope for better days. It gives renewed confidence in the good sense and judgment of the American people, and will, without doubt, calm the impetuosity of the free traders and make them hesitate before completing the work of destruction already begun. The effect of Tuesday's election in Ohio and, indeed, all over the country, is suggestive of the dawn of better times, of the return of prosperity. It will give Republicans courage for the Congressional contest of 1894 and hope for the complete triumph of protection in 1896.

The Press, in common with millions of Republicans throughout the country, congratulates Governor McKinley on his splendid victory. While the masses rejoice, there is no Republican statesman who will not gladly render to the courageous Ohio leader the full credit of the great victory he has won for himself, for his party and for the cause of protection, which is greater than all partisan victories. Quiet, dignified, modest, considerate of the rights of older leaders, true as steel to convictions, unwavering in his integrity, full of fact in overcoming opposition, unyielding on vital party principles, with a heart full of genuine sympathy for those who toil, a disposition unspoiled by success and a private life as spotless as self sacrifice, William McKinley of Ohio stands before the American people this morning as one of the finest types of courageous, persevering, vigorous and developing manhood that the Republic has ever produced.

Nashville, Tenn., March 6th, 1893.—The Stoughton Medicine Co., Nashville, Tenn.—Gentlemen: I have had muscular rheumatism and indigestion for a number of years, and had lost hopes of ever finding relief, as the most skilled physicians had failed in my case, but I am happy to state your Antiseptic has made a complete cure and I most heartily recommend it to all for rheumatism and indigestion. I will gladly answer all inquiries in regard to it. Antiseptic. Yours respectfully, W. E. BAYMAN, 310 Broad street.

PUBLIC LEDGER

SECOND YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1893.

ONE CENT.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

C. W. Howard of Millersburg visited friends in this city this week.

Rev. W. T. Spears and wife of Washington were in the city yesterday.

Superintendent Scott of the Cotton Mills is in Cincinnati to-day on business.

Miss Agnes Brown, after an exceedingly pleasant visit to friends in Covington, has returned home.

Genial Thomas Garrigan, the traveling information bureau of the B. and O. Southwestern, was in the city yesterday.

J. David Dye and Eugene A. Robinson skated in on No. 3 yesterday afternoon from a business trip through West Virginia.

Miss Marshall of "Cottage Cliff," Miss Allen of Millersburg and Miss Hocker of West Third street are the charming guests of Miss Neely Robinson.

Howell Barkley, who has been sojourning several months in Colorado, has returned greatly improved in health, and will leave in a few days for New York.

Mrs. Frederick Liebold of Cincinnati, after a three weeks visit to her mother, Mrs. Ann Cook, returned home to-day, accompanied by her brother, John T. Cook.

Spring Shackleford and wife of Gunnison, Col., who came to Maysville to attend the funeral of Mr. Shackleford's mother, Mrs. Ann Shackleford, returned home yesterday afternoon.

Teachers J. H. Rowland and Hayes Thomas of this city and William Inmann and brother of Aberdeen are in attendance at the Brown County, O., Teachers' Association, being held at Georgetown to-day.

Lexington Leader.—Miss Bessie Wadsworth of Maysville, daughter of the late Hon. W. H. Wadsworth, will arrive next week to be the guest of her schoolmate, Mrs. W. S. Barnes. Miss Wadsworth is an exceedingly bright and attractive young lady. During her visit to Mrs. Barnes several entertainments will be given in her honor.

The following poem is from the pen of some one who evidently has the "jerries." It was picked up in one of the business houses of this city, and tells the silly tale of some poor deluded boy or girl who needs a spanking.

Oh, my darling one, over and over
I kiss your rose red cheek;
I tell you in sweetheart's kisses,
The thoughts I cannot speak.
But I fancy you feel the meaning
That consecrates each kiss.
For it tells you, oh, my darling,
What the love of a sweetheart is.
God guide thy feet, my darling,
Wherever they may go;
May his love be round about thee
And keep thy soul like snow.
And if ever thy feet grow weary,
And the cares of life come fast,
Come back to the arms of your darling
And the love that will always last.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—will WARMER grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER will be;
Unless Black's shown—no chance we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock to-morrow evening.

THE books of the Limestone Building Association are now open for subscription to the Ninth Series of stock. Call on R. C. Sharp, Secretary; James Threlkeld, Treasurer; C. D. Nowell, Solicitor, or any of the Directors.

THE Best Plaster.—Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades, will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

THE best anodyne for the cure of Bronchitis is Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. It gives prompt relief, followed by certain cure.

THE C. and O. is building at the shops at Dayton, O., one of the finest dining-room cars that has ever been constructed. It will be entirely of mahogany, and will not cost less than $30,000 when completed.

BARGAINS in Sterling Silver Spoons at Murphy's the Jeweler. Sterling Silver Tea Spoons $5 and $6 in fancy patterns. The best value ever offered for the money. These prices are made to reduce a very large stock. Successor to Hopper & Murphy.

MONROE WALKER, who lives near Burtonville, is dangerously ill with an abscess on his throat. He is under the skillful treatment of Dr. Bowman and Irvine of Tolleboro. Mr. Walker has a host of friends in this city who will be pained to hear of his illness. He is a well known stock man of this vicinity.

THE State College at Lexington has ordered fire alarm boxes to be put up near the building. We don't know what it wants with a fire alarm near by. The whole place would burn down before the jokes they call firemen could get out of the engine house, let alone get to the building.

STATE COMMISSIONER OF AGRICULTURE McDOWELL says in his monthly report that the spring wheat crop is in fine condition to stand the winter, and calls attention to the fact that Kentucky is now recognized by Secretary Morton as one of the principal wheat growing states of the Union.

THE Young Men's Christian Association will be very grateful to any of our citizens who will send to it any magazines, periodicals, newspapers or books. It is their desire to collect reading matter so the nucleus to a library may be made. Harry C. Curran, Secretary, will receive any donations if left at Power & Reynolds's Drugstore.

THE protracted meeting at Scott Chapel, M. E. Church, colored, is still going on with great success. There have been twenty-eight conversions and thirty-two accessions to the church. Miss Mary E. Taylor of Tennessee is conducting the services. Everybody is invited to attend and hear her preach the gospel. Also, Quarterly Meeting on the 12th inst. A. McDADE, P. C.

WE are in receipt of a "beautiful" poem from the pen of "Rhelelu," whoever that is, and we must say we like such poetry—it is so appropriate. If the composer will be kind enough to show himself at this office will save the foolkiller a job. Such a poem would condemn anyone. We are very thankful for it, however, and would suggest that they come along with the next contribution. We pay a man a salary to kill such jokes.

ARE your children subject to croup? If so, you should never be without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is a certain cure for croup, and has been known to fail, if given freely as soon as the croupy cough appears it will prevent the attack. It is the sole reliance with thousands of mothers who have croupy children, and never disappoints them. There is no danger in giving this remedy in large and frequent doses, as it contains nothing injurious. Fifty cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds.

YOU all read the "pumpkin story" in yesterday's Ledger? It was excellent. We hope you gained the knowledge its end portrayed, so come out to-morrow to the men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Hall at 3 p. m. Rev. T. W. Watts will lead. His subject, "Christian Manhood," which will entertain and instruct you. Let there be a large attendance and come prepared to make a short, spicy talk on life and how to live it so as to reach the Christian's manhood. Our orchestra is very fine and will regale you with sweet music; Mr. Bailey on violin, Mr. Stewart on cornet, Mr. Cady on flute and Mr. Hoedlich on organ. Good singing and a pleasant time assured to all.

OWING to the failure of the last Legislature to pass the charter for cities of the second class the municipal officers, chosen at Tuesday's election in Lexington, it seems, will have to wait patiently until April, 1894, before they will be permitted to take their seats.

THERE will be a called meeting of the Presidents of all the Endeavor Societies of this city to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp at the Christian Church. All who are interested in Endeavor work are cordially invited to be present. Business of importance.

PROFESSOR W. STONE, the "botted" character reader, who hung out in this city until they had to take him out to bag snipe, has been hanging around Newport for the past five months worrying the people of that city. Just take him out over the hills on a jaunt and he will take a "skate."

THE habit of swearing is a very disgusting one and should not be allowed outside of a printing office. The Henderson Journal very truly says it is useful in proof reading, indispensable in getting the forms to press, and has been known to help in looking over the paper after it is printed—but otherwise it is a very disgusting habit.

CORNELIUS GLEASON, son of William Gleason, deceased, residing near Mayslick, died yesterday morning at 7 o'clock of consumption, aged 30 years. His mother, three brothers—Edward, Benjamin and John—and two sisters—Nancy Jane and Mary—survive him. The funeral will occur this afternoon at 1 o'clock at the residence, and the burial will be at the Washington Cemetery at 3 o'clock. Mr. Gleason was well known throughout this county, and his friends will regret to learn of his death.

ALL who read the pumpkin joke in THE LEDGER yesterday know the dimensions of the pumpkin in question. Now W. D. Hixson says he has seen pumpkins twice as large—in plain United States Kentucky Mason county Maysville Fourth Ward language, he has seen a pumpkin 50 feet in circumference and 44 feet long. We haven't heard Charlie Dieterich express himself, but we believe this downs him. The next thing in order is for some of our good citizens to go and see Hixson and feel his head. We think there is a job for the Sheriff and a jury.

THE Central Presbyterian Church. Preaching at 3 p. m. to-day. Also to-morrow morning and evening. Dr. Scudder will continue the meeting over Sunday. There were two more additions last night. All invited to attend these services.

SPRINGDALE.

Elder W. Corns will preach at Bethany next Lord's day at 11 o'clock.

W. J. Vaughn moved this week to the farm he recently purchased near here.

J. W. Bullock of Maysville visited relatives here several days the past week.

John Martin has commenced the erection of a new residence on his recently purchased farm east of here.

SIXTH WARD.

George M. Clinger is still on the sick list. Capt. Hutchison is adding a new roof to one of his dwellings.

Now you will have the truth from the Sixth Ward Councilmen.

We wonder if Charley cut off a piece of Wadsworth's ticket.

A. A. Wadsworth is next to Bill McKinley. Try him for Governor.

The Maysville Real Estate Company is beautifying its lots by setting shade trees.

The Sixth Ward has already candidates enough to supply Maysville with police. We hope we will get one that can't dance.

The stock running at large carried. The success of it was due to one of our merchants. Horses walk up and down the pavements and women have to go around.

COTTAGEVILLE.

Wheat is looking fine.

Farmers are busy husking corn.

William Gray has his new residence about completed.

Miss Bridget Gilligan of Brooksville is spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Murphy, at this place.

George E. Dunbar, School Commissioner of this county, was around visiting schools several days last week.

Dr. Winder has had a new fence placed around his lot at Cottageville, and is otherwise improving his property.

T. J. Tully has had his stock scales moved up opposite his store and completed ready for weighing stock, tobacco or anything of the kind.

Miss Linnie Bradford and sister, Mrs. Crisman, of Helena, were visiting their brother, A. W. Bradford, at this place a few days last week.

While John Murphy was on his way to Ed. Mann's sawmill his horses became frightened at some one rolling logs down the hill and ran away, knocking Mr. Murphy down and running over him, breaking his leg in two places and entering a very severe wound in his forehead. Dr. Winder set the broken bones, dressed his wound, and at this writing he is getting along nicely.

A Good Thing to Keep at Hand.

From THE TROY (Kansas) City.—Some years ago we were very much subject to severe spells of cholera morbus and now when we feel any of the symptoms that usually precede that ailment, such as sickness at the stomach, diarrhea, etc., we become scared. We have found Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy the very thing to straighten out one in such cases, and always keep it about. We are not writing this for a pay testimonial, but to let our readers know what a good thing it is to keep handy the house.

RIOTOUS SCENES

A Colored Mob Attacks the Police and Soldiers

While Escorting the Notorious Phil Evans to Jail at Bardstown.

The Streets Cleared By the Bayonets of the Military—Before the Trouble Was Over Many Men Were Badly Wounded—Still More Trouble Threatened.

BARDSTOWN, Ky., Nov. 11.—The fury of a mob of several hundred men broke loose in this town late Friday afternoon. The curses and cries of men, mingled with the clashing of arms, aroused the citizens to the highest pitch, and before the trouble was over many men were badly wounded. The mob suddenly sprung into existence, and in front of the court-house door a terrible race began over the Negro, Phil Evans, and only after eighty men of the Louisville Legion had charged on them with fixed bayonets was any sort of order restored. Evans has been on trial several days for the rape of little Edna Hall, near here, on October 14, and when removed from the Louisville jail to Bardstown for trial, a part of the Legion had to be sent along to protect him. The verdict will probably be reached Saturday.

The riot began Friday as Evans was being led between heavy guards of soldiers to the jail. After court had adjourned about fifty Negroes gathered in front of the court-house and cheered Evans. The police interfered, but this provoked an assault from the Negroes, and in a twinkling hundreds of men with pistols rushed through the square yelling "Hang the ———." String him up. Kill the scoundrel.

Some were referring to Evans, others to the mob of Negroes. Men were knocked down right and left, more pistols appeared on every side, and in the very middle of the mob a shot was fired with deliberate aim at one of the leaders of the colored agitators. The real leader, Leroy Wickliffe, received a fracture of the skull, and was removed by officers into the jail, where his wounds could be cared for. The Legion guard moved at double-quick time, placed Evans safely behind the bars, and a detail with fixed bayonets rushed toward the street, at which the Negroes, whose number had swelled to a hundred, retreated through an alley.

At 7:30 o'clock the report was spread that the Negroes had held a secret meeting and would burn the town during the night. A mob of seventy-five men have arrived from Springfield. The Legion guard about the jail has been doubled in consequence, and several families went into the country to spend the night, though Maj. Mansir and many others said they did not believe there would be any more trouble until Saturday.

Annie Pixley's Remains.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Annie Pixley's death was on Wednesday afternoon instead of Wednesday night, as was first stated. From the moment she left New York she was under the advice of a doctor, and was unconscious eight days before she died. She passed away painlessly. The cause of death is certified to have been apoplexy. The remains will be cremated at Woking on Monday, and the ashes will be taken to London, where they will be buried.

A Copper Corner.

LONDON, Nov. 11.—A report from the United States that a syndicate was being formed to buy all the copper in that country has attracted some attention here. It has long been supposed that the clique led by Baron Hirsch held half of the present visible supply of copper, amounting in value to $3,500,000, and this was not regarded as a formidable holding for a man of Baron Hirsch's resources.

Russo-German Treaty.

BERLIN, Nov. 11.—The delegates appointed by Russia to negotiate a commercial treaty with Germany made such concessions at a meeting of the commissioners that the conclusion of the treaty is secured. Moreover, Russia has now empowered her delegates to settle minor questions connected with the treaty without referring them to St. Petersburg.

Western Base Ball Circuit.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 11.—Chairman Chusman, of the western base ball circuit committee, Friday, called a special meeting at Indianapolis for November 30. The circuit will be as follows: Indianapolis, Toledo, Detroit and Grand Rapids in the east, and Milwaukee, Minneapolis, Sioux City and Kansas City in the west.

Kentucky River Improvements.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 11.—The river and harbor committee of the United States house of representatives was here Friday to examine the improvements already made on the Kentucky river under the supervision of the government, and to report to congress the advisability of further improvements.
